

Dear Ayinke - Loml

I don't know what to start with either from "the first day" or "the first time" or anything, you got the point. that when I saw you, I saw a joyful girl "Smile" ... Over 8 years ago and in that moment I felt something I haven't felt for anyone or anything or at all in the 12 years of my life, but as a kid I didn't understand it. I thought it was love at first sight, but now I know what I felt. It was my heart ♥, my home 🏠, my future. I felt you in me across all timeline ∞.

Having that feeling wasn't enough, I needed you to notice or even get to know me for who I was. I wasn't fully happy until the evening of the day of 26th December, 2020 you said it, you said "You love me", from that moment you didn't just make my day, you made me the most happiest boy in the Universal (Cause I have the most perfect woman in the Cosmo as my girl(friend)), you made me ["proud", "happy"], you gave me ["strength", "hope"], you gave me the most and enjoyable and unforgettable memory of my life (Those hours of days we spend together, visiting each other house's, cooking burning beans - Only you thou ~ Sniffn, The most enjoyable of them all is the days of project, that you come to use my phone (It is the most unforgettable days of my life ~ flurbo ...)); You gave me all - everything. and that's where the mistake comes in... "When a kid receive everything he ever wanted, he tends to misuse them". I misused your ["love", "care", "affection"], I thought since I have you I couldn't lose you but you showed me, that wasn't ~~pos~~ true but in a good way Cause that's the only way I could ["grow", "value", "be matured"], and that's the only way I could value what I need the most "You". uppercase C) Ayinke, the love of my life, my shining spinal Column, my one and only "atria". Concat ("and". Concat ("ventricles" "atria". Concat ("and". Concat ("ventricles")))) C), ~~you are~~ You are one of the people that believes in me that gives me courage to keep going in life

The person I think of when I am asked "where do you see you self in five years", I see ~~you~~ myself in you ~~work~~
The person I have never or will never regret having in my life, cause you are so perfect and great and kind to be hated.

I am so grateful, you actually gave me a chance to prove ["I am changed", "Matured", "I have grown"]. It means a lot to me believing in me ^{another} ~~one~~ last time and I promise to do what I can and even more to make you not regret making the decision

I will always love you and hope I get to spend the rest of my life with you, you could be stubborn at times but still...

I Love you 3000 still

I know or understand the religion is a big barrier for us but if we don't end up together I promise to be ur long lasting friend. a person you could always call or text when you are not in a good state. Ajinke.

But unlike then...

Ajinke, To death do us part.

This is a softcopy you should come and get the "HARD" copy

Dear Ayinke - Loml

I Love You  3000
